

David Tshidzumba

David is an environmentalist with a passion for community engagement and is part of the Save Our Limpopo Valley Environment (SOLVE) organisation. The organisation works in advocating for conservation and sustainable development in the Vhembe region. David holds a bachelor's degree in Environmental Sciences from the University of Venda.