

Kees Kodde

Kees is project lead of Fair Finance International, an NGO network in 14 countries. He graduated as a political scientist at the University of Nijmegen in 1991. Since then, he has worked as Campaigns Director for Friends of the Earth Netherlands, as Programme Officer for Oxfam Novib, and as Development Worker for Jesuit Refugee and Migrants Service in the Dominican Republic/Haiti. From 2010, he worked for 10 years for Greenpeace as Campaigner and Project Leader in various teams on issues of deforestation, climate change, trade, agriculture and food. He spent a year in China in 2012 as Campaign Advisor for Greenpeace East Asia. Kees joined Fair Finance International in March 2020.